

Alyssa Barrett, BookSmiles Ambassador

Alyssa found BookSmiles while looking for a way to donate her old books to underserved children. The BookSmiles mission resonated with her because she is an avid reader who found a love of reading at a very young age and attributes that to her academic success. Alyssa started a Winter Book Drive with BookSmiles in 2020. In a little over a month, she collected 4,324 books! Alyssa is continuing to advance the BookSmiles' Mission as an Ambassador by helping with social media outreach, book donation stations establishment, and developing partnerships.

Alyssa is a graduate of University of Delaware, where she earned two degrees in Human Services and Criminal Justice. Alyssa is a student at Temple Law School and will be graduating in spring 2021 with her J.D. Alyssa is interested in practicing Family Law.